BIO

You're here? You're blessed.

My parents named me Bismark Boakye Kwabena Marfo. I'm their 3rd son. Destiny named me BaggytheScribe, I'm her only son. As my name implies, I'm the last of the Scribes of the Neteru but in this age, I came as a Rhythm and Poetry artist.

Born into a family of music lovers, my own journey into that world was inevitable. I intend to live forever and so I document my life in my songs. Every song in my catalogue is a buildup from somewhere. I only put my reality on beats that fit my message.

LATEST SINGLE

Glory Road

ft. Dixny · Single · Out 25 December 2025 on all platforms

"Hopeful thoughts put into words and on a beat." Glory Road features the fast-rising Nigerian singer Dixny (formerly Famous Diony) and comes from a period when everything seemed to be in shambles. It is dedicated to his kid brother, Gustavo: the hook is a promise to him, and the song ends on it. It is also a reminder that family is sacred, honest about his issues with his father and about why he understands him.

> ...and oh I miss Gustavo, my baby bro
> Gustavo, you're always on my mind...
